GENERAL SECRETARY. 14 MAR 1941

Sir,

I have the honour to note in the margin Rule 6-E and Clause 2.of Rule 31 of the Mysore Co-operative Societies' Rules and to state that there is some conflict between the two in respect of the period of computation of default and the time within which the overdue amounts should be paid to regain eligibility to vote. It is necessary that both the Rules should be consistent with each other as an election is a part of the general meeting I therefore propose that clause 2 of Rule 31 may be modified as hereunder:-

"6-E. Notwithstanding anything contained in the byelaws of a society,no member who is in default to the society in respect of his dues for a period of three months or more and who has not paid up the amounts overdue at least seven days before the date of the general meeting,in spite of a notice having been issued to him shall be eligible to vote at the general meeting of such society.

Explanation:- A member shall not be deemed to be a defaulter if he obtains from the committee of management an extension of time for the payment of a debt before it becomes due but not after."

"31(2). A list of members who are in default for three months ~~or~~ and more in respect of their dues to the society should be prepared and notices given to such defaulters at least 15 days before the date fixed for the annual general meeting that they will not be entitled either to vote at the annual general election or to stand as candidates for election to the committee of management, or to any office in the society, if they fail to pay up the amounts due to the society seven days before the date of the annual general meeting."

"31(2). A list of members who are in default to the society in respect of their dues for a period of three months or more should be prepared and notices given to such defaulters at least 15 days before the date fixed for the annual general meeting that they will not be entitled either to vote at the annual general election or to stand as candidates for election to the Committee of Management or to any office in the society, if they fail to

to pay up the amounts overdue at least seven days before the date of the annual general meeting."

Sir,

In respect of the amendment proposed to rule 31(2) in Notification No.A.F.6875-C.S.83-40-2 dated, Bangalore 1st April 1941 published on pages 119 and 120 of Mysore Gazette Part IV of April 3, 1941, I have the honour to point out the following:-

Rule 31(2) speaks of the terms of the notices to be issued to defaulters. But there is no substantive rule to the effect that defaulters who do not pay up their dues at least seven days before the date of the annual general meeting are ineligible to stand as candidates for election to the Committee of Management or to any office in the Society.

A sub rule to this effect may be enacted in Rule 31, or Rule 6E itself may be amended by adding at the end "nor shall he eligible to stand as a candidate for election to the Committee of Management or to any office in the Society.

The same word may be used in rule 31(2) as in rule 6 E where the word "eligible" is used. In Rule 31(2), the word "entitled" is used.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
